Welcome to the CIPD

Welcome to the CIPD – the professional body for HR and people development. By becoming a CIPD Student Member, you'll join a community of more than 150,000 HR and L&D professionals who are committed to championing better work and working lives.

We've been setting the benchmark for excellence in people and organisation development for more than 100 years. But as the future of work unfolds, it will be your professional knowledge and understanding that will help people find the best opportunities to develop their skills and careers, and ensure that the way work is constructed, managed and experienced benefits individuals, business, and ultimately economies and society as a whole.

By studying for a professional qualification, you're demonstrating your commitment to taking that challenge seriously. And by joining the CIPD, you'll find yourself a career partner to support you every step of the way.

Welcome and good luck in your studies.

Kind regards

Peter Cheese Chartered FCIPD
Chief Executive, CIPD

The new Profession Map

The new Profession Map sets the international benchmark for the people profession. Use it to make better decisions, act with confidence, perform at your peak, drive change in your organisation and progress in your career. No matter who you are in the profession, whether you're a CIPD member or not, the new Profession Map is relevant to you.

Free online learning

We have launched a series of online courses, mapped against the new Profession Map, which bring the core behaviours to life and provide you with the opportunity to start reflecting on where you're at. Use these courses to go beyond your course material and strengthen your practice as a people professional. Access is free for CIPD members.

Raise your professional credibility

Develop a first-class career

When you successfully complete a CIPD Certificate or Diploma, you'll automatically be upgraded to Foundation or Associate Member.

CIPD Foundation Membership

Foundation Membership starts to build your credibility. It shows you're serious about your development and that you have a strong base of knowledge to build on. Once you've successfully completed your CIPD Foundation Certificate in People Practice* you become a Foundation Member and can use the designation 'Foundation CIPD'.

CIPD Associate Membership

Associate Membership is a visible demonstration of your experience and expertise in the people profession. Employers and colleagues respect and value the designation 'Assoc CIPD' after your name, and you'll carry a mark of professionalism that's recognised worldwide.

All CIPD Certificates and Diplomas, with the exception of the CIPD Foundation Certificate in People Practice*, result in CIPD Associate Membership.

* Regulated Qualifications Framework (RQF) Level 3 in England and Northern Ireland. Credit and Qualifications Framework (CQFW) Level 3 in Wales. Comparable to Level 5 in Ireland, Level 6 in Scotland, Level 4 European Qualifications Framework (EQF).

'The CIPD has completely transformed my career.'

Dipesh Mistry Assoc CIPD
Associate Member

Chartered grades

If you're studying a CIPD Diploma at Advanced level, upon successful completion you can upgrade to Chartered Member or Chartered Fellow grade (subject to eligibility), and use the designation Chartered MCIPD or Chartered FCIPD after your name.

Chartered Membership opens the door to new opportunities in the people profession. Your experience and expertise will be recognised and respected by colleagues and potential employers.

Chartered Fellow grade is a clear sign of your proven strategic abilities, people expertise and business impact. It shows you are committed to inspiring and shaping the future of the people profession.

'I would say it's critical to anyone's career in HR or L&D to be a CIPD member.'

Nicola Barber Chartered FCIPD
Chartered Fellow

Progressing through the CIPD membership grades

From starting out as a student, to deepening your knowledge and developing your abilities in a senior role, we're here to support your professional development throughout.
